Exhibit A: The Handwritten Manifesto

OFFICIAL PROFILE: 31-year-old male, Masters in Computer Science, highly educated.

THE DISCREPANCY: Highly technical individuals rarely write extensive operational notes by hand.

AUTHOR'S CLAIM: The handwriting and methodology contradict a high-IQ tech profile. The author argues it resembles the handwriting of a 'teenage girl,' sent inexplicably to family members right before an assassination attempt.

The Narrative Dichotomy: Tactical Inconsistencies

	OFFICIAL NARRATIVE	CLAIMED ANOMALY
THE WEAPON	Wolf Blitzer reported a "very serious weapon." Later reported as a shotgun.	Witnesses heard "pop, pop, pop" (inconsistent with shotguns). Multiple alleged shotgun blasts in a crowded room yielded zero collateral hits.
THE SCENE	Active shooter engaging multiple targets.	Suspect found lying on the floor, naked, hands behind his back, buttocks covered in tinfoil. Zero fatalities.
THE AFTERMATH	Suspect transported to a medical facility.	Transported despite zero reported injuries; author claims this functions solely to bill operations to taxpayers.

The Security Vacuum: Evidence of a Stand-Down

STANDARD SECRET SERVICE PROTOCOL

[x] Metal detectors
[x] Mandatory bag checks
[x] Physical pat-downs
[x] Agents in full body armor/face shields against serious weapons

ALLEGED EVENT REALITY

[!] Zero security measures reported by attendees
[!] “Show ticket and walk in”
[!] Unarmored agents posing for cameras post-event

CONCLUSION: The author asserts that this total lapse in basic protocol—lower than a high school or sporting event—is tactically impossible without a deliberate stand-down order.

The Primary Motive: Budgetary Inflation

THE INCENTIVE:
The author asserts that staged security threats are a reliable administrative tool used to artificially inflate law enforcement and security budgets.

HISTORICAL PRECEDENT CITED:
The post-January 6th Capitol police budget was increased tenfold. The police budget of a single building is now larger than those of major cities with over a million residents.

THE HYPOTHESIS:
This localized event serves as a blueprint. Manufactured threats reliably secure outsized financial allocations for security apparatuses.

The Profile Gap: Financial Anomalies

OFFICIAL BACKSTORY:
31-year-old employee working for a tutoring firm prepping high school students for the SAT.

MATERIAL REALITY:
Primary residence is a $1,000,000 condominium in Torrance, California.

AUTHOR'S DEDUCTION:

The suspect's highly advanced degrees (CalTech/Masters) and current high-value real estate holdings fundamentally contradict the modest occupational profile of an SAT tutor.

Biographical Timeline: The Missing Years

NODE A: Bachelor of Science in Engineering from CalTech (Top-tier science institution).

THE GAP: A massive, unexplained 8-year gap in the official educational timeline.

NODE B: Masters in Computer Science from Cal State Dominguez Hills (CSDH).

ANALYTICAL DEDUCTION:
The author points out the steep, illogical prestige drop from CalTech to CSDH, combined with a Masters degree that generally only takes two years, leaving six to eight years of the suspect's life completely unaccounted for.

The Front Companies: Intelligence Connections

IJK CONTROLS (San Gabriel)
Claimed by the author to be an alphabet company/CIA front working within the entertainment industry.

JPL (Jet Propulsion Lab)
Suspect alleged to be a Research Fellow. Author flags this as a massive red flag, noting JPL was founded by "superspook" Jack Parsons and is categorized as an intelligence front.

ABC NEWS APPEARANCE
Suspect was previously featured on national television discussing wheelchair safety—a highly unusual level of prior media polish for a "lone wolf" shooter.

COLE TOMAS ALLEN

The Network of Relatives: Elite Linkages

Digging into public background checks (Radaris), the author identifies a complex web of high-powered familial connections.

KEY FINDING: Cole Allen (Allan) is linked through Allan Ray Porush to Seville Porush, and ultimately to Benjamin Porush—the current director of AIPAC in San Francisco.

The suspect is deeply embedded in high-level political operative networks, negating the standard "random disgruntled citizen" narrative.

The Meta-Narrative: Controlled Opposition

The author claims that “alternative” figures (like Alex Jones and Kurt Metzger) are actually systemic tools used to manage public skepticism.

THE TACTIC:

- When an event is questioned, these figures push the narrative into absurdity.
- Jones validates the shooter as ‘Trump Derangement Syndrome’ to lend mainstream credibility.
- Metzger pivots to claims of advanced space travel and secret moon bases to instantly discredit genuine analysis.

RELATED NOTE:

The author cites the allegedly faked death of David Wilcock (Ancient Aliens/Gaia) as part of this coordinated noise-generation campaign.

INFOGRAPHICS.DIGITAL.

Synthesis Arc: The Distraction Engine

1. Manufacture the Anomaly

Stage a physical event with deliberate contradictions (The Naked Shooter / Security Stand-Down).

2. Enforce the Baseline

Mainstream media establishes and defends the ‘official’ traumatic narrative.

3. Deploy Controlled Opposition

Alternative media injects hyper-absurd conspiracies (Secret Moon Bases / Aliens).

4. Degrade Public Reality

The public is overwhelmed by noise, neutralizing genuine investigation and increasing dependence on authority.

INFOGRAPHICS.DIGITAL.

NotebookLM

The Ultimate Objective: Reality Degradation

The continuous acceleration of faked events, intelligence-front suspects, and alternative-media noise is not merely about inflating localized security budgets.

THE FINAL TAKEAWAY:

According to Mathis, it is a long-term psychological operation designed to "completely wean the public off the real world and all reality"—ensuring the populace's brains stew in manufactured stories 24/7 until they literally can no longer tell up from down.
